

Meijer Makes Achievers' Top 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ In North America

Recognized for second consecutive year, Meijer attributes success to strong team member commitment

Grand Rapids, Mich. - Meijer announced today it has been recognized by Achievers as one of the 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ in North America for a second consecutive year. This annual award recognizes top employers that display leadership and innovation in engaging their workplaces.

Meijer will be honored alongside other recipients of the Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ Award at a gala on October 22, 2018 at The Art Gallery of Ontario in Toronto, Canada before the opening of this year's Achievers Customer Experience (ACE) Conference.

Meijer Chief Human Resource Officer Michael Rotelle said, "On behalf of all Meijer team members, we are humbled and honored to be recognized by Achievers as one of the 50 Most Engaged Workplaces. Collectively, we are driven by a common principle - to do what is right for our customers. As an organization, we cannot do that effectively without the guidance and feedback of our team members. Collaboration and engagement are vital to our existence. I am proud at the lengths our team members go to achieve this every day."

"The companies we honor as the Achievers 50 Most Engaged Workplaces™ have made the employee experience, engagement and recognition the highest priority. They understand how critical employee engagement is to company performance, and what a competitive advantage it provides," said Aris Zakinthinos, Achievers General Manager. "The companies on this list serve as role models for other businesses by creating an engagement strategy that cultivates a high-performing workplace."

The winners were selected by a panel of esteemed judges comprised of employee engagement academics, industry analysts, thought leaders, journalists and influencers. Applicants were evaluated based on the Eight Elements of Employee Engagement™: Communication, Leadership, Culture, Rewards and Recognition, Professional and Personal Growth, Accountability and Performance, Vision and Values and Corporate Social Responsibility.
