

one-stop shop convenience, value and friendly service

Meijer is a family-owned Midwestern retailer that strives to better the lives of people in all our communities, making them better places to live, work and play.

Founded as a grocery store in 1934 by the father/son team of Hendrik and Fred Meijer, Meijer remains committed to families by offering solutions to everyday problems.

Today, Meijer carries on that “one-stop shopping” legacy, offering convenience and value along with fresh, high-quality food and friendliness you’d want from your local grocer.

Top Reasons to Shop Meijer

More than 220,000 products at affordable prices, including fresh groceries, housewares, apparel, sporting goods, seasonal items and more

We’re all about community

Each Meijer store employs 300 full- and part-time team members who are your neighbors, friends and part of your community. We have a longstanding commitment to our neighbors, donating more than 6 percent of our net profit to local charities each year.

Hunger Relief    Disaster Relief    Health & Environment    Education

Meijer revolutionized retail in 1962 by breaking down the barriers between selling groceries, clothing and hardware, and opening the first supercenter.

Our Simply Give program stocks shelves of local food pantries, generating $46M to feed hungry families since 2008. We donated 10.6M pounds of food in 2018.

Meijer supports local growers, contributing nearly $100M back into local economies and featuring items from 200+ farms across the Midwest.

Meijer became the first retailer to integrate its plus-size apparel into the women’s department, placing straight and extended sizes on one rack.

Our coin-operated pony, Sandy, first appeared in stores in 1962 and has become a shopping trip tradition still costing just one penny today.
