

Submit Your Shoutout: Meijer LPGA Classic for Simply Give Seeks Tournament Fans for 10-Year Celebration Video

Personal video submission deadline is April 22

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 21, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- The highly anticipated Meijer LPGA Classic for Simply Give is right around the corner. In celebration of its 10th year, the premier golf tournament is calling on past and present spectators, volunteers, sponsors, community partners, and LPGA players to submit memorable tournament moments for potential inclusion in a special 10th anniversary shoutout video.

The video will be showcased on various Meijer and tournament-specific channels leading up to and throughout tournament week, June 13-16, at Blythefield Country Club in Belmont, Mich.

"Whether you've teed off, cheered from the sidelines, partnered with our team, or felt the tournament's impact at your community's food pantry, your stories are the heart and soul of our celebration," said Cathy Cooper, Executive Director of Meijer LPGA Classic. "Let's come together to honor the memories, moments, and magic of this milestone year."

The tournament is accepting submissions until April 22, 2024.

To be considered for the shoutout celebration video, individuals are invited to record and answer one of the example prompts listed below in under 10 seconds:

- Share a congratulatory message on the tournament's 10th year
- Share why you love the Meijer LPGA Classic
- Share your favorite tournament moment

When fans are ready to submit, they should visit meijerlpga.portal.massive.io for all the information needed for a successful submission.

For the last 10 years, Meijer has partnered with thousands of volunteers, sponsors, vendors, and community partners, which have all helped the Meijer LPGA Classic generate more than $10 million and 94 million meals for its Midwest food pantry partners*. Most recently, the 2023 tournament brought record-setting attendance and volunteer participation, and event organizers anticipate strong attendance again this year.
