

Meijer Announces May 8 as Opening Date for New Northeast Ohio Supercenters

New stores in Austintown, Medina and Richmond Heights increase retailer's store count to 58 in the state

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 18, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Meijer announced today it will open three new supercenters in Northeast Ohio on May 8, increasing the retailer's store count to 58 in the state. The new 159,000-square-foot supercenters are located in Austintown, Medina and Richmond Heights.

The stores will feature the wide assortment of fresh produce and grocery staples Meijer customers know and love, including bakery, meat, seafood and deli departments, a floral area, garden center, apparel and home goods sections. The supercenters will also include a full-service pharmacy, health and beauty care section, an expansive pet department, electronics, toys and sporting goods. More details about these stores will be shared closer to their grand opening. A Meijer Express gas station will open on April 10 adjacent to the Austintown location.

"We're investing heavily to serve the Northeast Ohio community and consistently receiving positive feedback about our value and convenience," said Todd Anderson, Vice President of the Ohio Region for Meijer. "Ohio was the first state we expanded to outside of Michigan, and we look forward to continuing that growth this year and into the future."

There are still select part- and full-time job openings for the new Meijer supercenters. Ideal candidates will possess a desire to provide exceptional customer service and grow their skill set as part of the Meijer team. Interested candidates can find more details and apply online at <https://jobs.meijer.com/stores>.

The retailer employs more than 13,000 team members statewide at stores and its distribution and manufacturing facilities in Tipp City. Meijer plans to continue investing in the state through new store openings, remodeling current stores, creating jobs, and supporting team members and local nonprofits.
